MATTINGS

Fall Mattings Have Arrived. The values that we are offering in these ought certainly to appeal to every woman. It's somewhat out of the ordinary to offer new Mattings at the beginning of a season at less than regular prices. This is just what we are doing, for the reason that we bought more than usual and therefore we bought cheaper. We are giving you the benefit. You can take 2 1-2 cents per yard off any Matting we offer you.

Young Married People We Want to Say Something to You. Because you haven't the money to pay cash for a complete outfit of furniture don't buy "cheap" furniture. Come to us and we will furnish up as cosy and comfortable a home for you as you could wish for. And when it comes to paying for this furniture you'll find us quite satisfied to take "a little at a time."

TALK OF THE TOWN.

C. H. Kimball of St. Johnsbury is in the city on business.

Rev. L. F. Portney of Plainfield was in the city yesterday.

See the new styles in worsted and wool skirts at Abbott's.

There will be some fun at the minstrels in Woodmen's hall to-night.

A son was born to-day to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kieknam of Short street.

Frank Richardson of Waits River was in the city to-day, on business and visiting friends.

Stone cutters' glasses, from 20 cents upwards, at Gordon Riddell, watchmaker, 24 Elm street.

Mrs. Eleanor Smith returned to Northfield to-day after a visit at her former home in Washington.

Sam Nankeville, advance agent of the "Human Hearts" company, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Effective October 1st: Central Vermont and Montpelier & Wells River railroads announce that all freight charges must be paid upon delivery of freight.

Sheriff Tracy, Deputy Sheriff Lawson of Montpelier, and the deputies in this city, were assisting about town to-day, serving subpoenas for county court cases.

S. D. Sibley states that he does not own the property, regarding which a complaint was made of the city council Tuesday evening that a nuisance was being maintained there. Seven residents of Berlin and Smith streets had entered complaint about the alleged nuisance.

Among arrivals at the Hotel Otis yesterday were B. M. Strasser, Albany; J. F. Fitzpatrick, D. E. Langlois, W. J. Ross, S. D. Strout, George Kendrick, Boston; James M. Cullom, Portland, Me.; R. J. Sherman, New York; W. A. German, Cleveland, Ohio; E. M. Rother, Albert Young, Albany, N. Y.

Cool enough now to begin to think about sweaters. A. A. Smith and Brother have about as complete a line of the new fall shrimms as anybody in town so far. When you can buy a very serviceable sweater for 49 cents, as you can at Smith's this week, it is nearly time, if not quite, that you had one.

The Bijou continues to give satisfaction to a marked degree with the theatre-going public. And it very properly should, for the management spares no expense to obtain the best pictures and songs on the market. "Lost and Found" is one of the star pictures there to-day, and a good one it certainly is. But if you want to have a hearty laugh, see "Mrs. Toney's Suitors." It is one of those irresistible kind that you just can't keep from laughing at.

The new moving picture show in Hale's pavilion is making good with a rush. Good crowds there last night, and sure to be to-night. All new pictures to-day, and some of them out of the ordinary in quality. The management states that it is not their intention to interfere with the other shows in town, but simply to give pictures and songs of a grade that will draw for them a fair share of the public's patronage. There is a mighty good song there to-day, and you ought to hear it.

A WEEK IN THE LIBRARY.

There were 1,662 Books Given Out During the First Six Days.

There is not so much of a rush for books at the Aldrich public library as there was for a week after its opening, but that there is still something doing is shown by the delivery of 180 volumes yesterday. The first week's record shows that 1,622 books were given out, while there is no way of enumerating the people who have visited the reading room.

Yesterday's record of books given out is as follows:

Some of the swiftest fall and winter fashions in the popular shades of brown and lighter colors are to be seen at A. A. Smith and Brother's store. It would be pretty hard to match them in town at any price. They're showing some new separate trousers that are well worth an interested man's inspection before buying elsewhere. They are always glad to welcome those who come in "just to look around."
